

THE CHRONICLES OF SILVERDEER

MYTHICS: A
QUICK GUIDE

THE CHRONICLES OF SILVERDEER

MYTHICS: A QUICK GUIDE

The Knights of Silverdeer is a book of stories about the adventures of a band of Mythical beings who often stop evil villains, plots to take over the world, and the annihilation of life (be it Mortal or Mythic). Anna has been besotted with the book since early childhood. Most people believe the Knights are fictional characters and nothing more, but Anna believes..... and confirms... that the Knights were in fact real.

The world of The Chronicles of Silverdeer, the world our main character Anna resides in, is set up very much like our own real world. Only it's the 1930's and mythical beasts exist - albeit hidden - alongside mortals.

There are two main states of being within the world of Silverdeer:

Mythic and Mortal

Mortals are mostly human and those who do not possess any kind of mythical powers.

Mythics are divided into further categories;

Deities
Vampires
Werewolves
Sirens
Half-Breeds

THE CHRONICLES OF SILVERDEER MYTHICS: A QUICK GUIDE

Deities

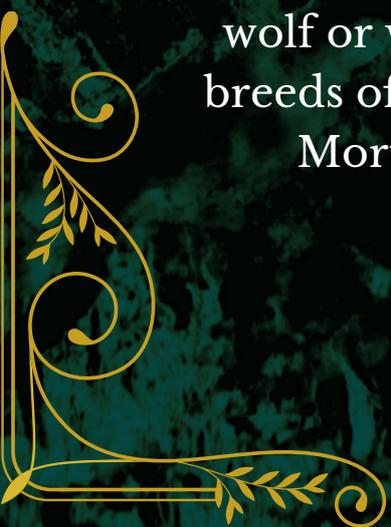

Anyone possessing powers, special abilities or magic. These powers are usually connected to the elements, but not always. The category name came to be commonplace after Mortals came to revere several powerful Mythics and worship them as minor gods and goddesses.

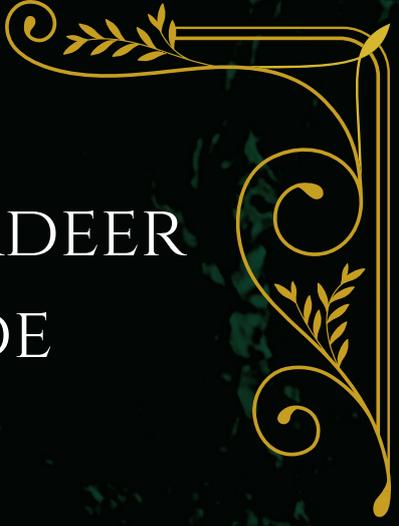

Vampires

The Vampire category, generally refers to any being that needs to consume blood or the life essence of others to survive. Not all Vampires are the same, there are several species across the globe. Ranging from those who cannot bear the sun, to those who are non-corporeal.

Lycans/Werewolves

These terms are generally used interchangeably when it comes to our furry friends. This category contains anyone who can turn into a wolf or wolf-like being, but ONLY a wolf or wolf-like being. There are multiple species and breeds of Lyan all over the world. Some living amongst Mortals, others having their own communities.

THE CHRONICLES OF SILVERDEER MYTHICS: A QUICK GUIDE

Sirens

Though it may not seem it, Sirens are perhaps more dangerous than any other category on the list. Those who fall into the Siren category are able to manipulate others/the world around them with their voice alone. Powerful Sirens have been known to command whole armies and bring castles crumbling down.

Half-Breeds

Though perhaps not the most diplomatic of terms, half-breed refers to anyone who's parents are a mixture of the above categories, or, (though rare) a mixture of Mortal and Mythic. This category also includes those with Mythic ancestry that could have led to their powers but may have skipped a generation.

These categories are generally agreed upon by Mythic scholars across the world. They can however be broken down further.

